Dear Mr. Meanwell,

For 30 years, people with HIV have turned to BGF in their moments of crisis. When a man had nowhere to turn and was afraid to be alone. When a young woman received a diagnosis and seriously considered ending her life. When a child was born with an illness that could not only lead to cruel and harsh judgment by his peers, but will also introduce him to a life of daily medications that he could not possibly live without.

On behalf of the clients, volunteers, staff and board of the Bobby Goldsmith Foundation (BGF), thank you for your donation of $156.50, made via Phonewallet.

I am privileged to continue the work that your support has created. Every day BGF meets people on their terms, carrying with them some of the most heart-breaking stories, and increasingly complex diagnoses. Because of you, many walk back out of our doors with a renewed sense of hope and an increased capacity to reclaim their lives from HIV.

You have given food back to someone who didn't know where her next meal would come from. You have helped ensure that she knew there would be enough medication to last this month and the next. You have given life skills and employment opportunities to a man who was forced out of a job after a positive diagnosis. You have helped to take the death sentence out of HIV for many.

People tell me they donate to BGF for a variety of reasons. There's a commonality though. We give because we care. You care, and we thank you.

Yours sincerely,

David Riddell
